You are invited to visit and enjoy Salmon, Idaho.

The River of No Return may run through Salmon, but once you have visited you will always want to return. With the Salmon River on the west edge of downtown, the Lemhi River on the north, and the Salmon River scenic byway and Sacajawea Historic byway running through town - Salmon is the confluence of history, scenery, and adventure.

Rafting, floating, hunting fishing, hiking and riding are just the beginning. Rich in history, with ghost towns, historic mines and hot springs, the birth place of Sacajawea, in the heart of the Rockies, on the Lewis and Clark trail — Salmon, is Idaho's finest, year round vacation spot. We look forward to seeing you in Salmon, Idaho!
